

MUSICFEST NEEDS YOU!

And your talents, skills, energy, and ideas...

Musicfest desperately needs a new generation of volunteers!

If we want Musicfest Northwest to continue in the years ahead, we will all need to lend a hand. Musicfest is staffed by volunteers, many of whom are older than 75. We need your help to continue this wonderful project.

If we don't step up, roll up our sleeves, and assist these fine people, Musicfest will be doomed to fade and extinguish.

We need you! Whether you are parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles of these fine young performers or a friend to music, music education, and excellence for our youth, please consider what you may do to help Musicfest.

Many of the jobs are short-term and easy, some are ongoing. We would be happy to help you find the role that fits your time and talent.

Musicfest needs help during the year with:

Communications: phone calls, emails, mailings

Executive: serving on the Board, Division Chairs – right now we need a Piano Division Chair!

Administrative: data entry, clerical work, proofreading

Publicity: putting up posters, mailings

Fundraising: grant writing, ad sales, working with donors

Musicfest needs help during Festival Week with:

Adjudicator Assistance;

Staffing check-in desks (Piano Division alone needs 50 staffers);

Moving Supplies between the office, festival site, and back again;

Creating the concert programs and shepherding them through the printing process.

Tell your friends, family, associates, and colleagues!
